Dear Mr. Weisberg -

Hello! I looked up those gentlemen in the telephone book and I'm pretty sure of Calcutt and Roger Frisby's addresses because they alluded to law but under Maw there were just several of them listed. Here are the ones I got though. names

If you know Maw's first name I'll look again but there was no clue in the telephone. He could possibly be working with one of the other two.

Also a friend pointed out that in the National Enquirer (horrible paper I know) the columnist John J Miller wrote that R secretly speaking with the FBI & giving the details of how the assassination was well planned and complex conspiracy. If you know Maw's first name I'll look again but there was no clue in the telephone. He could possibly be working with one of the other two.

Also a friend pointed out that in the National Enquirer (horrible paper I know) that the columnist John J Miller wrote that Ray was secretly speaking with the FBI's giving them the details of how the assassination was a well planned and complex conspiracy. He also wrote one of the allegations was that the man who set King up for the fatal shot was one of King's most trusted confidantes. — I don't know how much truth there is in that or even if there is any but thought I'd tell you of it anyway.

I read John Pilger's column quite frequently. He's very good - too good for the paper he writes for.

That's fine about not identifying me. The more I read the more I realize how things really are. It's a bit disillusioning to say the least. Do let me know the when the book comes out. I'd like to read it. The whole business seemed to be so hushed up I'd like to know what was really going on.

If I can do anything else, you only have to ask. I'd be more than willing.

My best to you

Cindy
